

ALL ABOUT BIRDS IN TEMPLETON

LEARN ABOUT TEMPLETON BIRDS

Wednesday, May 14th , 10 AM

The Council on Aging: 135 Patriot's Rd, E Templeton

Join us for a free program on Templeton birds. Find out about the feathered friends living in your backyard, then learn how citizens and conservation groups can collaborate to better protect them.

JOIN US FOR A GUIDED BIRD WALK

Sunday, May 18th, 9 AM

Dwelly Farm, 290 Barre Rd, Templeton (parking on Henshaw Rd)

Experienced birder Clayton Hobart will lead a walk through green woodlands, open fields, and shady streams in search of spring migrants and other birds. Bring your own binoculars if possible!

PUT OUT BLUEBIRD HOUSES WITH NCLT

Sunday, May 18th , 10 AM

Dwelly Farm, 290 Barre Rd, (parking on Henshaw Rd)

Putting out nestboxes is a great way to help protect bluebirds. Come help us mount our new bluebird houses in fields near Dwelly Farm. All ages welcome. Learn about bluebirds and have a great time!

For more information, check out our website
www.northcountylandtrust.org

To register for an event, email: clevy@northcountylandtrust.org